About Us

We, K & K Industries, belong to the list of companies, which have become customers' favorite in a very short frame of time. Becoming this, wasn't at all tough for us as all we have to do is keep our ideologies, business plans and policies, customer-focused, which we already had. This prestigious title of being customers' favorite has made all our business paths easy and helped us to see a future that is bright and welcoming. Currently, as a quality-focused manufacturer, we enjoy a large customer-base that places repeated orders to us pertaining Drum Pulley, Rubber Conveyor Belt, Bucket Conveyor Belt, Conveyor Idler and much more. All the products are free from defects because these are tested stringently on various parameters of quality and functionality prior getting shipped. We leave zero space for errors in execution of business works. This is done to make business dealing smooth and hassle-free.

We understand that not just making quality products on time is crucial but serving them within promised time-frame is. Knowing this fact, our company well-stocks offered line in a huge quantity at warehouse. Our warehousing facility is well-equipped with big sized storage systems, which makes storage as per categories very easy. Proper labeling of products assists in easy product identification at the time of shipment. Also, nearness of our facility to all modes of transportation aid in doing timely delivery of products. Mr. Jitendra Patel (Manager), is helping business to outperform by devising strong and innovative business plans and policies.
